

Accessibility statement

This accessibility statement applies to fjwcoaching.com. This website is developed and managed by Recruit So Simple.

The accessibility of our website is important to us because our users all have different needs. Please get in touch with us if you have any difficulties using our website or accessing our services, so that we can support you. Improving accessibility is an ongoing process, so we welcome any feedback and suggestions for improvement.

We aim to make our website fully compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.1 AA. In accordance with the WCAG guidelines, the website is designed to enable you to:

- change colours, contrast levels and fonts
- listen using a screen reader
- navigate it using just a keyboard
- navigate it using speech recognition software
- zoom in up to 300% without the text spilling off the screen

The following features of the website may not be fully compliant:

- Linked content – FJWilson Talent Services is not responsible for the accessibility of customer embedded or linked content such as pdfs.

If you need any of the information on this website in a different format, please get in touch.
